Hey Dave,

For you to know, but not yet public, the mayor has entered into a negotiation with the demonstrators and Coventry is a site that they have asked be taken down. It appears the organizers have agreed... More to come..

David: Based on the frustration of community members in Overbrook and the fact that some vehicles left the Coventry site and are now blocked by counter protesters at Riverside and Bank, I hope police command is aware that there is potentially a reduced number of vehicles at the Coventry site.

Have you heard of any community members blocking Coventry at Vanier Parkway?
It looks like people are starting to block the convoy at various points of access today.

[REDACTED]

I have a growing email list of neighbours who have been writing letters and calling to complain and I want to help if this kind of action is taking place. I'd be happy to keep them in the loop of any sort of community actions that are taking place.

Thanks for keeping in touch,
